PROFESSIONAL WEB SITES

I designed the following websites to focus on select topics of importance to my work and research.

Nursing-informatics.com

A professional development initiative to empower global nurses to apply nursing informatics to practice, education, research and administration.

<http://www.nursing-informatics.com>

EcoNurse

An activist, research-based site intended to catalyze human awareness of ecological issues and solutions, with a focus on nurses. <http://econurse.org/>

Nurse Activism

This site has been created to offer theory, resources, examples, research, news, and tools to help nurses unite, organize, and participate in activist initiatives that contribute to the health, well-being, peace, and harmony of humanity and all of Planet Earth. <http://www.nurse-activism.com>

Canadian Nursing Informatics Association (CNIA)

Official national site, as part of role of Director of Communications, 2003 – present, President-Elect, 2005 - 2006. President, 2007 – 2009, Past-President, 2010 - 2011. <http://cnia.ca>
